- » Any forward-looking statements speak only as of the date of this presentation and the company undertakes no obligation to publicly update such statements.

SOLUTION PROVIDER, RESPONSIBLE CAPITAL ALLOCATOR SOLID EARNER, ATTRACTIVE CYCLICAL RECOVERY POTENTIAL

- » Solution Provider: We add value to our products through multiple services and supply solutions in contrast with manufacturers and small distributors
- » During the recent energy down-cycle, HWCC substantially strengthened the company, returned capital to investors, diversified revenue streams, and invested for future growth
- » As the energy sector recovers, projects recover, and infrastructure spending increases, we believe HWCC can reach or exceed its prior peak earnings
- » During previous energy upcycle HWCC earned $1.00 per share and a 16.2% average ROE
